

When Death and Loss are Part of the Job

Tuesday, June 20, 2017

8:30 AM - 11:00 AM

Hospice Giving Foundation
80 Garden Ct., Suite 201
Monterey, California

Description

Hospice professionals face many losses every day in their professional lives—not only the deaths of patients but also their own personal losses. Many other professionals also come into contact with the bereaved—social workers, therapists, attorneys and spiritual leaders.

This live program will discuss the impact that this work can have on professionals and provide organizational and personal strategies to help them thrive.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this webinar, participants will be able to:

- Define sentimental order and apply it to their own work situation;
- Describe the importance of death notification noting factors that make for both effective and ineffective death notification;
- Discuss strategies that can assist work organizations in supporting helpers;
- List three strategies of self-care and three ways organizations can support self-care.
