HOPE IS NOT A PLAN

by: Dr. Atul Gawande

JOIN US during the Mee Memorial Hospital Week of Wellness for a screening and discussion of the PBS FRONTLINE film Being Mortal. Based on the best-selling book by Atul Gawande, MD, this documentary explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the physicians who treat them.

Target Audience: Medical professionals, clinicians and social workers.

Dinner catered by The Cork & Plough | Attendees will also receive a Starbuck's gift card

Cost: Complimentary
(Registration is required and seating is limited)

Program:
There will be a one-hour screening followed by a half-hour facilitated discussion with Maureen McEachen, LCSW, Central Coast Visiting Nurses Association and Hospice

RSVP: Contact Philip Geiger, HG Foundation, Director of Education & Communication at 831.333.9023

ATUL GAWANDE MD, MPH, is a surgeon, writer, and public health researcher. He practices general and endocrine surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital and is professor in both the Department of Health Policy and Management at the Harvard School of Public Health and the Department of Surgery at Harvard Medical School.
