

Dying is not just a medical event. It is a human/spiritual experience

Hospice Giving Foundation presents
2019 Annual Symposium: Exploring Spirituality at End of Life
Friday, May 31 | 8:30 AM - 3:00 PM
Embassy Suites | Seaside, CA

This educational symposium is open to members of the public and professionals interested in exploring spirituality at End of Life.

At the conclusion of this symposium participants will be able to:

- Understand spirituality in the context of relationship-centered patient care;
- Define the roll of chaplains on palliative care teams;
- Describe end-of-life care options, advance care planning, and how to have “the conversation”
- Understand caregiving during a crisis using silence, listening, and appropriate responses;
- Describe helping clients enhance spiritual coping with end-of life including spiritual practices, rituals and beliefs.
