Defining Hope

A story about people weighing what matters most at the most fragile junctures in life, and the nurses that guide them.

Presented by Meggie Pina, Ombudsman Program Manager and Philip Geiger, Director of Outreach for Hospice Giving Foundation

Defining Hope is a documentary that follows patients with life threatening illnesses as they make choices how to move forward with their life. Join us for a 60-minute film screening and 30-minute discussion/conversation to help you gain peace of mind and prepare for your healthcare and end of life needs.
